About IIm2Amal

We are specialists in Tarbiyyah and character development, providing educational resources and training that aim to nurture confident British Muslims who will benefit society through strong character and social responsibility.

Our mission is to focus on the 'holistic development' of young Muslims in Britain and to make transformative character education accessible to the communities they live in.

As a growing organisation, we are recruiting talented individuals with the skill-set, passion and commitment to make this vision a reality and inspire within Muslim learners a strong identity and a sense of responsibility.

Successful candidates will join a dynamic team, benefit from a tailored personal and professional development plan and above all, gain a unique opportunity to shape Islamic education practices that will directly impact the way educators and parents nurture current and future generations of Muslim children.

The Role

As part of the expansion of the IIm2Amal initiative, we are looking to recruit a creative individual with teaching and writing experience to join our growing curriculum development team.

Developing the IIm2Amal curriculum will involve producing innovative resources that will allow teachers and parents to deliver character education in a new and exciting way.

Job Description

- Writing, piloting and evaluating creative lesson plans tailored for Muslim faith schools, Madrassahs/Maktabs and Supplementary Schools
- Conducting research on advancements in education related to Tarbiyyah, character development and values-based education
- Providing general support to the curriculum development team and regional trainers and working with them to roll out the curriculum to leading Muslim institutes nationally and internationally
